WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Welcome Back – It has been lovely to see all the children this week. It has been good to hear about their skills that they have practised and new experiences they have tried. Any work that they have produced about their holiday activities should be brought to the classroom to be shared and displayed. We are pleased to welcome Mr Allen, Mrs Mate and Miss Wynne to our team.

Work Sharing – Following the success of last year's work sharing sessions we are repeating them this year (please see forthcoming dates for details). The sessions will be held in the main hall from 8.55am until about 9.30am. Please look at the dates so that you can be available to see your children's work. Early Years Children will share their work in the Spring Term.

Hoarding Competition - Last term our Year 5 children produced art work for the hoardings at the Town Hall. I am delighted to announce that we won the National Competition and all the children were presented with goody bags.

Big Soul Sing – Our Year 4 & 5 children will be starting professionally led singing lessons this term leading up to a concert celebrating the Big Soul Sing. The concert will be in the evening of 18th December. The venue has yet to be decided but please hold the date in readiness for the concert.

Upper & Lower School – We have restructured our classes so that years 4 to 6 will be referred to as Upper School, years 1 to 3 will be Lower School and Early Years will remain as they are. This has been done to offer better transition from Year 2 to 3 and make each team the same size. The Upper School is led by Julie Bryant and the Lower School by Kirsty Priest.

Inflatables Afternoon 13th September – Please see flyer sent out this week via Parentmail

Tesco Tokens – Thank you to everybody who chose our forest school project with their Tesco Tokens. The voting has now closed and we will hear the result at the end of this month.

Summer Reading Challenge - Well done to all those pupils who have taken part in this year's Summer Reading Challenge and will receive two Owl Points. We will also be awarding a Holly Trees Gold Certificate to any pupil who completed the Challenge - children should bring in their Mischief Makers' certificates on Monday to prove they have read all six books.
